

Fountain Square Broomball League Fills Before Deadline
Registrations Pour In for Downtown After-work Activity

CINCINNATI, December 15, 2006 – 3CDC’s first-ever Fountain Square Broomball League filled a day before the deadline, with registrations still coming in. The league is limited to 24 teams, or 12 games a week, to keep the ice rink open to public skating as much as possible. Fountain Square Managing Director Bill Donabedian explains, “This response shows that people are excited to come downtown, and the league only looks to get bigger next year.”
